

You're Invited: A Virtual Celebration of the Life of Pat Wertheim

Please join friends, family, and the global forensic community for a virtual celebration honoring the life of Pat Wertheim. In true Pat fashion, he asked that his remembrance be anything but somber—he wanted it to reflect the joy, passion, and larger-than-life spirit that defined his extraordinary journey.

We invite you to wear your favorite festive attire—something Pat would've loved— and come ready to celebrate a life well and fully lived. And in true celebratory spirit, feel free to bring your favorite beverage to raise a toast—bonus points if it's a Shiner Bock, Pat's beer of choice.

 Saturday, May 31

 1:00 PM EST (USA)

 Join us at: <https://patwertheim.com/remembrance/>

The event will be streamed live on YouTube, with full details available at the link above. Let's honor Pat together—by sharing stories, smiling through the tears, and remembering the unforgettable legacy he leaves behind.
