Course Title:
RS&A ONLINE - RS&A ONLINE - Common Sense Digital Imaging for Latent Print Examiners

Course Details:
16 Hours | $350.00 | 30 Day Access

Course Instructor:
Matthew Marvin, CLPE

Course Description:

In this online course, your instructor Matt Marvin, CLPE, CFWE will share his many years of experience and expertise applying digital imaging to latent print evidence using Photoshop.

This course is designed for latent print examiners of all levels. If you have little to no knowledge of Photoshop…this course is for you. If you have been using Photoshop for years…then this course is for you. Anyone who uses Photoshop to make side-by-side comparisons can and will benefit from completing this online course.

You will learn some of the very best tools Photoshop has to offer. Not only will you learn the function behind each of these tools and how to use them, but you will learn how each of them applies directly to working with digital impression evidence.

All of these tool sets will be accompanied by exercises for you to hone your Photoshop skills and apply what you have learned.

This course teaches a tool and then builds on that tool as you progress through the course. You get world class instruction which teaches you professional techniques and shortcuts. Mastering these tools and techniques can save hours of time and frustration when using Photoshop and working with digital impression evidence.
